

Applying for social assistance?

There are now three ways you can apply for the Ontario Disability Support Program, Ontario Works and Assistance for Children with Severe Disabilities:

Online

Visit ontario.ca/socialassistance to start the Online Application for Social Assistance.

- Confidential
- Convenient – access it from the privacy of your own home or from any computer with an Internet connection
- Available 24 hours a day, seven days a week
- Accessible for people with disabilities
- Available in English and French

It also includes a screening section that can tell you whether or not you might be eligible before you start the application process.

In Person

Visit your local office to apply.

By Phone

Call your local office to complete the application over the phone.

For more information, visit:
ontario.ca/socialassistance